DSA Architect Biography Report (August 26, 2008, 11:09 pm)
Basic Biographical Details
Name: James Wright (junior) Designation: Architect
Born: 1871
Died:
Bio Notes: James Wright (Junior) was born in England in 1871, the son of James Wright. He commenced his architectural training in September 1887, spending the following two years partly in the office of A & A Heiton of Perth, partly in engineering work in Glasgow, and partly in study. In November 1889 he began an articled apprenticeship with John James Burnet, who was then in partnership with James Archibald Campbell as Burnet Son & Campbell. He studied at the Glasgow and West of Scotland Technical College and at the Glasgow School of Art from 1890 to 1892, during which time he was living with his older civil engineer brother George (born c. 1868) at 231 Bath Street, the house of his step-grandmother Agnes Turnbull. He remained with the same firm as draughtsman until 1908 when he commenced independent practice.

He was admitted LRIBA in the mass intake of 20 July 1911, proposed by John Bennie Wilson and the Glasgow Institute of Architects. His travels prior to that time had been limited to Scotland and England, and at that time he still appears to have been based in the same offices as Burnet's firm. By 1914 his office was at 261 West George Street, where he remained until at least 1930. Shortly thereafter he relocated his office to Stirling, where he continued to practise until at least 1939.

William L Turnbull, age 25, consulting mechanical engineer, married Lizzie Kay, age 22, of Straiton, Ayrshire, at Cockburn Hotel, Bath St, Glasgow 27 Sep 1895. Witnesses Campbell Turnbull and Jessie Kay. His parents were John Turnbull, consulting mechanical engineer and Elizabeth Turnbull m.s. Lawrie, deceased. Her parents were James Kay, farmer and Jean Kay m.s. McWhirter. Elizabeth remarried in 1915 so William Turnbull must have died. I am told their children were Millicent, Jean (1905-1920) and John. Millicent and possibly John later went to Australia. Regards Sheena
